

TECHNOLOGY BOOT CAMP FOR ADMINISTRATORS.

June 18 & 19, 2009 in Ames, Iowa

Co-sponsored by SAI and CASTLE

Blogs. Wikis. Podcasts. YouTube. RSS. Social bookmarking. And more...

You've probably heard of at least some of these. You've probably even encountered a few online. But do you know how to use them? Do you know how to create and share and collaborate and make these tools yours?

If you're tired of not understanding the new technologies, if you'd like to feel more empowered in this digital world of ours, or if you just want to upgrade some existing skill sets, then we've got a workshop for you...

SAI and CASTLE are pleased to announce our first Technology Boot Camp for Administrators. Three 3-hour sessions designed to ramp up your skills with blogs, wikis, Twitter, YouTube, digital photography, Google Reader and RSS, Google Docs, Google Calendar, iGoogle, and more. We'll cover as much as we can in the time that we have, but we're going to take our time rather than rush. The emphasis will be on success and mastery.

Instructors: Scott McLeod & Jamie Fath

Schedule:

June 18, 1pm to 4pm, Session 1 (we'll also buy you dinner that night at Hickory Park BBQ)

June 19, 9am to 12pm, Session 2 (you're on your own for lunch; be back on time!)

June 19, 1pm to 4pm, Session 3 (go home feeling powerful!)

What to bring: laptop with wireless capability, digital camera, webcam (if you have one)

Cost: $250
